Tena koutou,

News flash!

Our new Leigh School website is now live. Check it out on: www.leigh.school.nz A big thank you to Rachel for putting that all together and to "Geek Free" for the templates and formatting of the site. It has taken a long time to get to this point but we are all very excited about the launch and to finally have the process completed.

Last Wednesday night we had the parent meeting to review the Summer Carnival. The discussion was very positive and there were many helpful suggestions made, as to how we can make it even more successful than it was. We plan to get onto delegating jobs for next year's Festival- early, so that everyone has plenty of time to get organized. Other suggestions as to possible fundraisers were also discussed and the 'Friends of Leigh' will be considering those ideas at their next meeting.

Those who attended also completed a Health Questionnaire. If you were not at the meeting, there will be copy of the questionnaire attached to this newsletter for you to fill in and return to school (one per parent). Please can we have those returned to school by next Friday. The box is on Fay's counter.
