Dates to Remember

Aug 31 NZ Playhouse – ‘Red Riding Robyn Hood’
Sept 5 Interschool Hockey, Warkworth
28 Term 3 ends
Oct 15 Term 4 starts

Tena koutou,

Today the children are all attending the Interschool Cross Country in Warkworth. The track is challenging enough without having to contend with squally showers of rain as well and cold winds, so hopefully, they’ll come back proud of their efforts and having enjoyed being out in the winter elements.

The children are really trying hard to display their Leigh School values - “Respect, Responsibility and Kindness” – with many children being given tickets in recognition of how well they are doing. This recognition may be in the way of a ‘treat’ for their house or it may be an individual ‘treat’.

This is acknowledged each Monday morning at our assembly and you’ll also see it from time-to-time in the weekly newsletter.

It would be helpful if you could also reinforce this message at home, by noticing acts of kindness, respect or times when your child/ren take on responsibility.

We have awesome kids at Leigh School but we can always improve on ways in which we relate to one another.

Nga mihi nui,

Julie

Upcoming event : August 31: Red Riding Robyn Hood

Red Riding Robyn Hood – NZ Playhouse

A New Zealand Playhouse Performance for Leigh School on Friday 31st August. Cost per pupil is $7.00. Thank you to the Friends of Leigh for subsidising this show for our students to enjoy.

Money, money, money.

I’m aware that there is a big call on you for money for shows and transport at the moment. If you are having difficulty paying for all these events, please feel free to contact Fay in the office to arrange payment over time.

Baking for the Interschool Hockey Tournament, Wednesday September 5th

Leigh School hosts this event in Warkworth each year and we have enough helpers to prepare and sell food on the day, but we need baking to sell also. Apparently cupcakes went down a treat last year!

Reminder

For safety reasons, parents are asked to park on the road when collecting children in the afternoon, not come into the school carpark. It’s fine to use the carpark in the morning as the drop-offs are staggered.

Reminder to Year 6 students

Mahurangi College
2019 Enrolments
Closing Date

Wednesday
5 September, 4pm
